“Not all of us can do great things. But we can do small things with great love.”

— Mother Teresa

“Miss no single opportunity of making some small sacrifice, here by a smiling look, there by a kindly word; always doing the smallest right and doing it all for love.”

— Thérèse de Lisieux

“Holiness consists simply in doing God's will, and being just what God wants us to be.”

— Thérèse de Lisieux

“God would never inspire me with desires which cannot be realized; so in spite of my littleness, I can hope to be a saint.”

— Thérèse de Lisieux,

“Then, overcome by joy, I cried, 'Jesus, my love. At last I have found my vocation. My vocation is love. In the heart of the Church, my mother, I will be love, and then I will be all things.’”

— Thérèse de Lisieux

“I am only content when I'm praying for sinners. The good God has made me see how much he loves that I pray for poor sinners. ... I don't know if it were really a voice I heard or a dream, but, whatever it was, it woke me up and told me that to save a soul in the state of sin is more pleasing to God than all sacrifices. For that reason, I do all my resolutions for penance.”

St. John Vianney

The more we are afflicted in this world, the greater is our assurance in the next; the more sorrow in the present, the greater will be our joy in the future.

St. Isadore of Seville

Whenever anything disagreeable or displeasing happens to you, remember Christ crucified and be silent.

St. John of the Cross

When tempted, invoke your Angel. he is more eager to help you than you are to be helped! Ignore the devil and do not be afraid of him: He trembles and flees at the sight of your Guardian Angel.

St. John Bosco

Make yourself familiar with the Angels, and behold them frequently in spirit. Without being seen, they are present with you.

St. Francis de Sales

The rich man who gives to the poor does not bestow alms but pays a debt.

St. Ambrose of Milan

One single act done with aridity of spirit is worth more than many done with feelings of devotion.

St. Francis de Sales
